Investigators contacted [redacted] and requested the voluntary disclosure of IP addresses used to post the above referenced comments. [redacted] responded that while [redacted] was willing to cooperate with investigators and provide the information requested, he only felt comfortable doing so if someone had broken the law or if there were a real threat. [redacted] opined that other than being objectionable, the comments in question were free speech and did not amount to either or crime or threat. For that reason, [redacted] did not feel comfortable turning over the information requested.
